

Architectural Historian

Lawhon and Associates, Inc. (L&A) is seeking a self-motivated architectural historian for our growing cultural resource practice. The selected individual will be part of a talented team, led by senior archaeologists and historians, with the expertise to provide mentorship through each step of technical and professional development. This is a full-time position in our Columbus office, with hybrid work flexibility. The role offers a blend of field survey and technical reporting and provides the opportunity to contribute to a variety of architectural history projects, including but not limited to:

- Historic Research
- Data Collection and Mapping
- NRHP Nominations
- Historic American Building Surveys (HABS)
- Historic American Engineering Record (HAER) Documentation
- Historic and Cultural Resource Management Plans
- Section 106 Documentation and Coordination

Qualifications

Qualified candidates must meet the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for a Licensed Professional in the field of Architectural History, including a graduate degree in architectural history, historic preservation, public history or a related field. Knowledge of Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act and at least one year of professional experience in historic preservation are also desired. Other required capabilities are listed below.

- Excellent organization and time management skills.
- Strong analytical and technical writing skills.
- Effective verbal and written communication skills.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office Suite.
- Willingness to support a variety of infrastructure and development project types for private and public sector clients.
- Availability for periodic overnight travel to job sites in Ohio and the Midwest.
