

Archaeology Technician

Lawhon & Associates, Inc. (L&A) is seeking archaeologists for archaeological laboratory and curation work at our Columbus Office for a large Phase III project. Individuals with an interest in osteology are encouraged to apply. There may also be opportunities to support archaeological fieldwork in Ohio. Compensation is $18.00 per hour. Opportunities are available to start immediately.

Qualifications

Minimum requirements include an Associate's degree or Bachelor's degree in Archaeology, or a related field; field school or archaeological field experience is preferred. The ability to work outdoors in various weather conditions, sufficient physical endurance to perform standard archaeological excavation techniques, attention to detail, reliability, the ability to sit for long periods, and the ability to work well with others are essential to the position.

Contact

Please submit a resume detailing your experience and education, three professional references, and contact information to Mason Waugh, L&A's Archaeological Field Director at mwaugh@lawhon-assoc.com. Submissions without three professional references will not be considered.
